

ANNOUNCEMENT

Beth McVicker-Murphy – Joins our board of directors

Dear Members,

Baseball NSW would like to announce the appointment of Beth McVicker-Murphy to its Board of Directors. Beth is filling a casual vacancy left by the resignation of Elected Director, Anthony Brasher. Anthony has resigned his position with BNSW to take on a position on the Baseball Australia Board of Directors. BNSW would like to thank Anthony for his substantial contribution to the Strategic development of Baseball NSW and wishes him the best of luck in his new role. We know that he will be a great asset to the National body with an intimate insight into what BNSW's needs & desires are.

In welcoming Beth, BNSW has gained a wealth of baseball knowledge given her service within the NSW Baseball community. Beth has a passion & commitment to Baseball in Australia, having devoted many years in executive positions within her associated clubs. She is a Level 2 coach and has travelled with teams in a manager & executive officer role.

Professionally Beth is currently the Customer Insights Manager for The College of Law Ltd, holding an MBA in Marketing. Her corporate acumen, and over 12 years of governance and leadership as a not-for-profit Director and Club Baseball President, will be of great added value to an already formidable Board of Directors.

As per the NSW Baseball League Constitution, Beth's appointment is effective as of June 10th, 2020 and is subject to membership approval. If any member has any objection to this appointment, it can be expressed to the President in writing or via email no later than August 31st, 2020 at 12.00 pm.

All correspondence can be addressed to the BNSW Board President, Ross Morrison at president@baseballnsw.com.au

Regards,

Mark Marino
CEO Baseball NSW
