- The above table shows the possible options for a player at every league age.
 - Please see details for each age division competition below.
- Each age division apart from TBall has an opportunity to be selected in an All Star team.
- Refer to eligibility criteria for each age division, as they may vary depending on the age division.

Summary for Season 2018-2019

- The players that choose to play Junior League will now be eligible to participate in the Little League Charter All Star team in the State Championships, however they will need to play 60% of regular season in LL Majors to be eligible.
- 'ALL STAR TEAM'- These are teams selected from the players in a particular association who have competed in a particular age group/league. In some age groups, there are player's age eligible for the club competition but may be too young or too old for the All Star Team. The details are listed below in each of league description sections.
- Please also note that a player can only participate in one All Star team per year.
- Players may not play in two simultaneous charters/association where competitions run simultaneously (E.g. Cannot play within one charter on Saturday and another charter on Sunday) if they wish to be eligible for an All Star Team. Little League International rules state that a league/competition cannot force a player age eligible in more than one division into a particular division/ age group. This choice must be made by the player and their family.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. Why have we adopted Little League in Australia?

A. This concept provides many benefits for participants including:

- i. Increased participation at National Events
- ii. Community focused teams
- iii. Early inclusion vs early exclusion

Q. Can a player play in two All Star Teams?

A. No. A player can only be selected in one All Star team.

Q. Can a player play in two different associations club teams?

A. No, if they wish to be selected into a Charter All Star Team

A. Yes, if they do not wish to be selected into a Charter All Star Team

Q. Can a player play in the Junior League Competition and still be eligible for Little League major All Star selection?

A. Yes. This was not the case until recently, however, a player must participate in 60% of club games in the age division they wish to be All Star eligible.

Q. Do I need to speak to other clubs to form a charter?

A. No. Clubs just need to enter how many teams they will be entering into each division. There is a very in-depth process to changing charters.

Q. How many games does a player have to play in the charter league regular season to be eligible for All Star Selection?

A. A player is required to play in 60% of the charter league regular season games.

Q. Does the minimum 12 games (per team) Charter League regular season include finals?

A. No. The regular season excludes finals.
