

Baseball NSW Acknowledge Blue Sox Licensee

30 April 2021

In light of the recent announcement from Baseball Australia, Baseball NSW would like to acknowledge the contribution Adam Dobb has made to the Sydney Blue Sox organisation, NSW Baseball & the enthusiastic supporters following the team.

Adam was one of the first licensees to commit to the new Australian Baseball League and has been integral in ensuring the continuity of the League and the team, as well as having to manage the team last season during the impact of COVID.

Baseball NSW sincerely thank Adam for his commitment and wish him all the very best in his future endeavours.
